Defendants.

AMENDED COMPLAINT

JURY DEMAND

-----X

Plaintiff, ANTHONY GIBSON, by his attorney, The Law Offices of UGO UZOH, P.C., complaining of the defendants herein, The City of New York, Commissioner Dora Schiro, Deputy Warden Martin Murphy, Warden Thomas Hall, C.O. Newkirk [Shield # 16120], P.O. Winston F. Babolal [Shield # 27108], P.O. Derby Wancique [Tax Reg. # 943938], Sergeant Eric Panni [Tax Reg. # 930904] and John Doe and Jane Doe (collectively, "defendants"), respectfully alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action at law to redress the deprivation of rights secured to the plaintiff under color of statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, and/or to redress the deprivation of rights, privileges, and immunities secured to the plaintiff by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 [and § 1985], [and arising under the law and statutes of the City and State of New York].

JURISDICTION

2. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, 28 U.S.C. § 1343, 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1367, and under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

3. As the deprivation of rights complained of herein occurred within the Eastern District of New York, venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 (b) and (c).

COMPLIANCE WITH N.Y. GEN. MUN. LAW REQUIREMENTS

4. Plaintiff timely made and served a notice of claim upon the defendants in compliance with N.Y. Gen. Mun. Law § 50-e.
5. At least thirty days have elapsed since the service of aforesaid notice of claim and adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.
6. This action is commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event(s) upon which the claim(s) is based.

THE PARTIES

7. Plaintiff is and was at all times material herein a resident of the United States and the State of New York.
8. At all relevant times, defendants Commissioner Dora Schriro, Deputy Warden Martin Murphy, Warden Thomas Hall, C.O. Newkirk [Shield # 16120], P.O. Winston F. Babolal [Shield # 27108], P.O. Derby Wancique [Tax Reg. # 943938], Sergeant Eric Panni [Tax Reg. # 930904], John Doe and Jane Doe (hereinafter “defendant officers”) were, upon information and belief, and still are, agents and/or officers employed by defendant City of New York and assigned to the New York City Department of Correction and/or the City of New York Police Department.
9. At all times herein, the defendant officers were acting under the color of their official capacity, and their acts were/are performed under color of the statutes and ordinances of the City of New York and/or the State of New York. Defendant officers were/are the servants, agents, and employees of their co-defendant, the City of New York, such that their acts are imputed to the City of New York.
10. At all relevant times, the defendant City of New York was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, and was/is the employer of the defendant officers, and the actions of the defendant officers complained of herein were done as part of the custom, practice, usage, regulation and/or at the direction of the defendant City of New York.

11. Plaintiff is suing the defendant officers in their individual and official capacities.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

12. On or about September 4, 2012, at approximately 2:30 p.m., defendant officers, acting in concert, arrested the plaintiff without cause at his home at the time which is located at 888 Lafayette Avenue, 2nd Floor, Brooklyn, New York, and charged plaintiff with PL 160.10(1) ‘Robbery in the second degree’, among other charges.
13. Plaintiff, however, did not steal any property and did not commit any offense against the laws of New York City and/or State for which any arrest may be lawfully made.
14. Prior to the arrest, defendant officers suddenly appeared at the plaintiff’s home and demanded to speak with the plaintiff.
15. When the plaintiff inquired as to the reason why, defendant officers arrested the plaintiff and tightly handcuffed the plaintiff with his hands placed behind his back.
16. After falsely arresting the innocent plaintiff, defendant officers forcibly pushed the plaintiff into their police vehicle and transported the plaintiff to the NYPD-81st Precinct.
17. Eventually, after detaining the plaintiff at the precinct for a lengthy period of time, plaintiff was transported to the Central Booking to await arraignment.
18. While plaintiff was awaiting arraignment, defendant officers met with prosecutors employed by the Kings County District Attorney’s Office.
19. During this meeting, defendant officers falsely stated to the prosecutors, among other things, that the plaintiff stole certain property.
20. Based on the false testimony of the defendant officers, a prosecution was commenced against plaintiff.

21. Following plaintiff's arraignment, bail was set to secure his release.
22. Because plaintiff could not make bail, plaintiff was transported to Rikers Island Correctional Facility ("Rikers Island"), and was incarcerated at said facility for several months.
23. Eventually, on or about March 5, 2013, the false charges levied against plaintiff were summarily dismissed.
24. Following the dismissal of the false charges against him, the plaintiff was released from detention by defendants after approximately six (6) months of unlawful incarceration.
25. During the period of his unlawful incarceration -- beginning from approximately September 4, 2012, to March 5, 2013 -- and at all times relevant herein, plaintiff was detained by defendants as a pretrial detainee awaiting trial.
26. Plaintiff was detained at Otis Bantum Correctional Center (OBCC), which is one of the jails that comprise the Rikers Island.
27. The Rikers Island is made up of approximately ten (10) different jails, including OBCC, and is owned, controlled, managed and/or operated by defendants.
28. The OBCC is located at 16-00 Hazen Street, East Elmhurst, New York.
29. Plaintiff was placed in the prison population and/or a dormitory that is located at OBCC's 5 upper and was assigned to Bed # 42.
30. Another inmate named Carl Graves was assigned to Bed # 41 which was a few feet away from the plaintiff.
31. Upon information and belief, Graves has a history of mental illness and assaultive behavior and had been transferred on several occasions by defendants from one jail to another because of his history and assaultive behavior.
32. Defendants knew that Graves was of a violent and assaultive disposition, and that he had unprovokedly attacked, assaulted and injured several other individuals in the past.

33. Defendants knew that Graves was not fit to be placed in the prison population and should have been placed in a mental health ward.
34. Even though defendants were well aware of Graves' history and violent tendencies, defendants nonetheless placed Graves a few feet away from the plaintiff and failed to take any precautions to assure the plaintiff's health and/or safety.
35. On or about October 16, 2012, at approximately 11:25 p.m., as the plaintiff had just finished saying his prayers and got out of his bed to place his Bible in a bucket that was under his bed, Graves unprovokedly attacked and viciously assaulted the plaintiff knocking the plaintiff down to the floor.
36. As the plaintiff fell due to the barrage of blows from Graves, plaintiff hit his elbow on Bed # 43 and landed on his head.
37. Plaintiff was caused to be dazed and confused as a result of the assault and sustained, among other injuries, a loose tooth, neck and back pains and injuries to his legs and elbows.
38. Upon information and belief, the assault was captured on a camera and was witnessed by defendant officers including, but not necessarily limited to, Newkirk.
39. Defendant officers merely stood idly by and watched, refused to take appropriate actions to ensure the safety of the plaintiff and did not call for aid nor intervene to protect the plaintiff.
40. It was only after the plaintiff had been battered, severely wounded and coldly knocked down that defendant officers finally managed to raise an alarm.
41. Prior to the assault, Graves, upon information and belief, did also perpetrate a similar violent assault upon at least one other inmate.
42. Defendants negligently placed Graves within a few feet from the plaintiff at OBCC's 5 upper despite knowledge that Graves has violent tendencies and a history of assaultive behavior.
43. Defendants failed to place the plaintiff in a jail where he was safe from harm and were deliberately indifferent to plaintiff's health and safety.

44. That each and every officer who responded to and/or was present at the location of the arrest and/or at the precinct or facility knew and was fully aware that the plaintiff did not commit any crime or offense, and had a realistic opportunity to intervene to prevent the harm detailed above from occurring. Further, each and every officer and/or individual who responded to, had any involvement and/or was present at the location of the assault knew and was fully aware of the assault and had a realistic opportunity to intervene to prevent the serious harm detailed above from occurring.
45. Nonetheless, defendant officers did absolutely nothing to discourage and prevent the harm detailed above from occurring and failed to protect and ensure the safety of the plaintiff.
46. As a result of the aforesaid actions by defendants, plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer emotional distress, fear, embarrassment, humiliation, shock, discomfort, loss of liberty, loss of rights to familial association, wages and financial losses, pain and damage, and damage to reputation.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. § 1983

47. By this reference, plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 46 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.
48. The conduct of defendant officers, as described herein, amounted to false arrest, excessive use of force, unlawful entry, abuse of authority, malicious abuse of process, failure to intervene, illegal and unreasonable stop, frisk, search and seizure, unlawful stop, unreasonable detention, racial profiling, pattern of harassment, conspiracy, fabrication of evidence, deliberate indifference to a serious threat to the health or safety, cruel and inhuman treatment, cruel and unusual punishment, discrimination, denial of equal protection of the laws, denial of right to a fair trial, denial of due process rights and malicious prosecution.
49. Such conduct violated plaintiff's rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

50. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: FAILURE TO TRAIN/SUPERVISE/DISCIPLINE AND MUNICIPAL POLICY - against defendant City of New York

51. By this reference, plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 50 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

52. Defendant City of New York, acting through the New York Police Department, had actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and/or usages of failing to properly train, supervise or discipline its police officers concerning correct practices in conducting investigations, the use of force, interviewing of witnesses and informants, assessment of the credibility of witnesses and informants, reasonable search of individuals and/or their properties, the seizure, voucher and/or release of seized properties, obligation not to promote or condone perjury and/or assist in the prosecution of innocent persons and obligation to effect an arrest only when probable cause exists for such arrest.

53. Additionally, defendant City of New York, acting through the New York City Department of Correction, had actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and/or usages of failing to properly train, supervise or discipline its officers concerning use of force, fraternization with inmates, impermissible delegation of duties to inmates, aiding prisoners in distress, ensuring the safety and well being of prisoners, protecting prisoners from harm, prevention of inmate on inmate assaults, isolating inmates with mental problems in jails, provision of medical treatment to prisoners, correct practices in conducting investigations, interviewing of witnesses and informants, supervision of subordinates, assessment of the credibility of witnesses and informants, obligation not to promote or condone perjury, obligation not to assist in cover ups and/or assist in the prosecution of innocent persons, and the duty and/or obligation of candor toward the court.

54. Further, defendant City of New York, acting through Kenneth P. Thompson and the Office of the District Attorney of the County of Kings, had actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and/or usages of failing to properly train, supervise, and discipline its Assistant District Attorneys and employees concerning correct practices in conducting investigations, interviewing witnesses and informants, assessing the credibility of witnesses and informants, the initiation and/or prosecution of criminal actions, obligation not to promote or condone perjury and/or assist in the prosecution of innocent persons and the duty and/or obligation of candor toward the court.
55. Defendant City of New York, acting through aforesaid New York City Department of Correction, NYPD and District Attorney, had actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and/or usages of wrongfully arresting, illegally stopping, frisking, searching, seizing, abusing, humiliating, degrading, assaulting, and/or maliciously prosecuting individuals who are members of racial/ethnic minority groups such as plaintiff, who is black, on the pretext that they were involved in narcotics, drugs, guns, robbery and/or other illicit activities.
56. Further, the existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional policies, practices, customs and/or usages may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct.
57. For example, in Floyd v. City of New York, 813 F. Supp. 2d 417, 422 (S.D.N.Y. 2011), the Southern District of New York observed that the City of New York had been accused of racial profiling on multiple occasions and that it had settled at least one of the lawsuits brought against it concerning racial profiling.
58. In Ligon v. City of New York, 12 Civ. 2274, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 22383, at *9-*10 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 14, 2013), the Court determined that the City of New York, acting through the NYPD, engages in unlawful stop and frisk. See also Davis v. City of New York, 10 Civ. 0699, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 45601 (S.D.N.Y. March 28, 2013) (same).

59. Additionally, NYPD Police Officer Michael Carsey was recently convicted of felonies for lying under oath and falsifying information while applying for a search warrant.
60. Police Officer Carsey's supervisor, Sergeant William Eiseman, had earlier admitted to fabricating facts to justify searching vehicles and homes for cocaine, marijuana and guns, filing false information to obtain search warrants and performing illegal searches of vehicles and homes. That Sergeant Eiseman admitted to perjury and fabricating evidence against innocent persons that he falsely arrested and charged with possession of narcotics and/or illegal drugs, and also admitted to training numerous young police officers to commit similar crimes and/or offenses.
61. In addition, in or about October 2011, Detective Stephen Anderson testified against Detective Jason Arbeeny, a veteran of the NYPD. That Detective Anderson testified that, among other things, it is a common practice within the NYPD to plant narcotics and/or illegal drugs -- commonly known within the NYPD as "flaking" -- on innocent persons in order to meet arrest quotas. Detective Anderson referred to the practice of planting narcotics and/or illegal drugs on innocent persons as "attaching bodies" to the narcotics and/or illegal drugs. According to Detective Anderson, this practice "was something I was seeing a lot of, whether it was from supervisors or undercovers and even investigators."
62. Regarding the issue of arrest quotas, Detective Anderson confirmed that the NYPD requires officers to fill quotas, and testified that even as a detective "you still have a number [of arrests] to reach."
63. Recently, a jury determined that officers of the NYPD are permitted, as a policy and/or practice, to fill their arrest quotas by making unlawful arrests. See Bryant v. City of New York, Index No. 22011/07 (Sup. Ct. County of Kings Feb. 18, 2011).
64. Prior to his testimony, Detective Anderson and his partner provided false testimony in court claiming that they purchased cocaine from certain individuals who as surveillance video later confirmed did not have any sort of contact or communication with Detective Anderson and his partner during the time period that Detective Anderson and his partner claimed to have purchased the controlled substances and/or illegal drugs.

65. Detective Arbeeny was subsequently convicted of planting controlled substances and/or illegal drugs on a woman and her boyfriend, and was convicted of the charges against him including official misconduct, offering a false instrument for filing and falsifying business records.
66. Recently, the New York Supreme Court, County of Kings, Criminal Term, Gustin L. Reichbach, J., determined that the NYPD has a system of flawed procedures that caused Detective Arbeeny's unlawful actions. Judge Reichbach further determined that the NYPD has a widespread culture of corruption and has adopted a "cowboy culture" and practice which he described as "[a]nything goes. . . ." That Judge Reichbach expressed shock at what he described as "the seeming pervasive scope of misconduct [and even worse] . . . the seeming casualness by which such conduct is employed."
67. Further, in or about 2008, the New York Supreme Court, County of Kings, Criminal Term, Albert Tomei, J., determined at a Mapp hearing in People v. Simms, Indictment No. 11263/07, which was held on or about September 9, 2008, that the police officers involved in the arrest in that matter are "not credible" and that the police officers' "testimony is so obviously fabricated . . . to avoid any Constitutional objections the defendant may have . . . and that [any] property taken . . . is to be suppressed because it was the product of an unlawful arrest and search and seizure."
68. In addition to the instances of police misconduct described above, several officers of the NYPD -- including but not limited to Detective Christopher Perino, Police Officer Michael Daragjati, Police Officer Henry Tavarez, Police Officer William Masso, Detective Oscar Sandino, Detective Sean Johnstone, Sergeant Michael Arenella, Sergeant Jerry Bowens, Police Officer Michael Pena, Police Officer Nicholas Mina, Detective Kevin Spellman, Sergeant Bobby Hadid and Police Officer Admir Kacamakovic -- have recently been convicted of various similar crimes as those described herein including but not limited to falsifying police reports, perjury, corruption, robbery, gun running, drug dealing, prostitution, theft and assault. Former NYPD Commissioner Bernard Kerik was also recently convicted of corruption and similar crimes as those described herein.

69. In addition to the named individual defendants, several officers of the NYPD assigned to NYPD-81st Precinct -- as the named individual defendants -- routinely make unlawful arrests charging innocent persons with various crimes and/or offenses.
70. Most of the arrests and charges made by officers assigned to NYPD-81st Precinct are usually voided and/or dismissed by prosecutors for lack of evidence.
71. Defendant City of New York has settled numerous lawsuits brought in this district against several officers assigned to the NYPD-81st Precinct concerning similar arrests and charges as those described herein. See, e.g., Diane Dawson v. City of New York (10 CV 5768); Khadija Shepherd v. City of New York (10 CV 885); Adrean Coombs v. City of New York (08 CV 3447).
72. Further, the rate of inmate on inmate assaults at Rikers Island is very high and defendant City of New York has done little to nothing to address this issue. For example, in or about October 2004, an inmate named Tyreece Abney was fatally beaten at Rikers Island by other inmates while another inmate named Christopher Robinson was also beaten to death on October 28, 2008, by his fellow inmates. Gang violence, stabbings and slashings are known to occur on a daily basis at Rikers Island.
73. Defendant City of New York maintained the above described policies, practices, customs or usages knowing fully well that the policies, practices, customs or usages lead to improper conduct by its police officers and employees. In failing to take any corrective actions, defendant City of New York acted with deliberate indifference, and its failure was a direct and proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries as described herein.

74. The actions of defendants, acting under color of State law, deprived plaintiff of his due process rights, and rights, remedies, privileges, and immunities under the laws and Constitution of the United States, treatise, ordinances, customary international law and norms, custom and usage of a right; in particular, the right to be secure in his person and property, to be free from abuse and the use of force and the right to due process.
75. By these actions, defendants have deprived plaintiff of rights secured by treatise, ordinances, customary international law and norms, custom and usage of a right, and the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION: 42 U.S.C. § 1985

76. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 75 inclusive, with the same force and effect as though more fully set forth at length herein.
77. In an effort to find fault to use against the plaintiff, defendant officers conspired among themselves, and met with other individuals and conspired with them to deprive plaintiff who is black of his constitutional rights secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution, because of his race, ancestry and/or ethnicity, and took numerous overt steps in furtherance of such conspiracy, as set forth above.
78. In light of the foregoing therefore, defendant officers engaged in a conspiracy designed to deprive plaintiff of his constitutional and federal rights in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1985.
79. As a direct and proximate result of the misconduct and abuse of authority detailed above, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore stated.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION: NEW YORK STATE CONSTITUTION, ARTICLE I,
§§ 5, 6, 8, 11 & 12

80. By this reference, plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 79 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

81. By reason of the foregoing, and by arresting, detaining and imprisoning plaintiff without probable cause or reasonable suspicion, and harassing and assaulting him and depriving him of due process and equal protection of laws, defendants deprived plaintiff of rights, remedies, privileges, and immunities guaranteed to every New Yorker by Article I, § 5 (prohibiting cruel and unusual punishments), Article 1, § 6 (providing for due process), Article 1, § 8 (guaranteeing freedom of speech), Article 1, § 11 (prohibiting discrimination in civil rights and providing for equal protection of laws) & Article I, § 12 (prohibiting unreasonable searches & seizures) of the New York Constitution.
82. In addition, defendant officers conspired among themselves and conspired with other individuals to deprive plaintiff of his constitutional rights secured by Article I, §§ 5, 6, 8, 11 & 12 of the New York Constitution, and took numerous overt steps in furtherance of such conspiracy, as set forth above.
83. Defendant officers acted under pretense and color of state law and in their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their respective employments as officers, agents, or employees. Defendant officers' acts were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority of law, and in abuse of their powers. Defendant officers acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive plaintiff of his constitutional rights secured by Article I, §§ 5, 6, 8, 11 & 12 of the New York Constitution.
84. Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, and employees were responsible for the deprivation of plaintiff's state constitutional rights.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION: OTHER NEW YORK TORTS

85. By this reference, plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 84 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.
86. The conduct of the defendants, as described herein, amounted to false arrest/imprisonment, assault and battery, unlawful stop and frisk, unreasonable search and seizure, unreasonable detention, negligence, defamation, conspiracy, special injury, loss of consortium, harassment, tortuous interference, abuse of power, fraud, trespass, malicious abuse of process and malicious prosecution.

87. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION: INTENTIONAL & NEGLIGENT INFILCTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

88. By this reference, plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 87 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

89. The defendants engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, intentionally, negligently and recklessly causing severe emotional distress to plaintiff.

90. Plaintiff's emotional distress has damaged his personal and professional life because of the severe mental pain and anguish which were inflicted through deliberate and malicious actions.

91. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENT HIRING AND RETENTION OF EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

92. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 91 inclusive, with the same force and effect as though more fully set forth at length herein.

93. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York, through its various agencies and departments including the defendants in this action, owed a duty of care to plaintiff to prevent the physical and mental abuse sustained by plaintiff.

94. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York, through its various agencies and departments including the defendants in this action, owed a duty of care to plaintiff because under the same or similar circumstances a reasonable, prudent and careful person should have anticipated that an injury to plaintiff or to those in a like situation would probably result from such conduct described herein.

95. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York knew or should have known through the exercise of reasonable diligence that defendant officers were not prudent and were potentially dangerous.
96. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York's negligence in hiring and retaining defendant officers proximately caused plaintiff's injuries.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully prays judgment as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages against all defendants in an amount to be proven at trial;
- b. For exemplary and punitive damages against all defendants in an amount to be proven at trial;
- c. For costs of suit herein, including plaintiff's reasonable attorney's fees; and;
- d. For such other and further relief as the court deems proper.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Pursuant to Rule 38 (b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiff demands a trial by jury.
